David Gaimster : The Hunterian, University of Glasgow: Director's Choice before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Hunterian, University of Glasgow: Director's Choice:

Introduces The Hunterian at the University of Glasgow, Scotland's oldest public museum, through the voice of its Director.

About the Author Professor David Gaimster has been Director of The Hunterian, the University of Glasgow museum and gallery service, since 2010. Before moving to Glasgow he was General Secretary, Society of Antiquaries of London; Senior Policy Advisor for Cultural Property, Department for Culture, Media Sport, London; and Assistant Keeper in the Department for Medieval Later Antiquities, British Museum, London. He has published extensively on late medieval to early modern European archaeology and material culture.
