Rudolf Abraham : The Mountains of Montenegro: A Walker's and Trekker's Guide before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Mountains of Montenegro: A Walker's and Trekker's Guide:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Three StarsBy Alexander LaRosaNot as good or as comprehensive as other Cicerone guides. Seems ok for Durmitor park.

The mountains of Montenegro are some of the wildest, most spectacular, and least visited in Europe. Nevertheless they are easily accessible, and many areas have well-marked trails. They present an opportunity to travel through outstandingly beautiful and remarkably unspoilt natural scenery, which as yet sees few visitors. The Mountains of Montenegro is the first comprehensive English-language guide to hiking in this beautiful area, written by an author who has visited the country over a number of years and has lived in neighbouring Croatia. The most spectacular mountain areas in Montenegro, with itineraries ranging from single-day hikes to multi-day treks. Includes: Variants and extensions from the main routes . Circular and point-to-point routes . Generous background information, including mountain huts and shelters, travel to and within the country, history and language.

About the Author Rudolf Abraham is an award-winning travel writer and photographer specialising in Croatia and eastern Europe. He is the author of eight books (five of them on Croatia) and has contributed to over a dozen more, and his work is published widely in magazines. He first visited Croatia in 1998, lived in Zagreb for two years, and continues to spend several weeks a year in his favourite country in Europe.
