Outdoor Photography Magazine : The PIP Travel Photography Guide to England before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The PIP Travel Photography Guide to England:

With such diverse landscapes, historic heritage, and culture to capture, England can intimidate almost any camera-toting tourist. Where to begin? Over 40 magnificent sites from all around the country—urban and rural, ancient and contemporary, seascapes and highlands, close-ups and horizons—are profiled here so you can take your best shot. With invaluable advice on bringing home prize pictorials, plus technical tips, maps, and lodging suggestions, this pocket-sized guide is perfect to slip into your luggage.
