Stefan Rudnitsky : The Ukraine and the Ukrainians (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Ukraine and the Ukrainians (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from The Ukraine and the UkrainiansThe Ukrainian written language has a history of fully a thousand years behind it. In the ancient Ukrainian Kingdom of Kieff there arose the socalled Chronicle of Nestor, the Epic of Igor, and other important monuments of Ukrainian Literature. Their language has been built up on the foundation of the Church Slavonic dialect, but presents great linguistic departures, as early as the eleventh century, from the literary works simultaneously produced in the Russian territory to the North.
