Print Luggage (Volume 4):

THREE SUMMERS IN PORTUGAL is the fourth book in the Leopard Print Luggage travel narrative series, documenting the author's journeys to a string of exotic and inspiring destinations. The Luggage—stylish, compact, robust and versatile—was designed for just the sort of travel experiences a leopard-print girl craves, experiences that will take her out of her comfort zone and offer new lessons and challenges. THREE SUMMERS spans three years and three consecutive trips to Portugal. More than a travelogue, it is a love story inspired by Fado, the hauntingly beautiful genre of music which originates there. Set against a backdrop of romantic cities, wild coastline and traditional rural villages, it is a tale of adventure, love, loss and saudade with historical, geographical and cultural aspects woven into the narrative.
