Ancient Republic of Ragusa (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Through Bosnia and the Herzegóvina on Foot During the Insurrection, August and September 1875: With an Historical Review of Bosnia Revised and Enlarged, and a Glimpse at the Croats, Slavonians, and the Ancient Republic of RagusaHerzegovina, I have ventured to give some particulars in the story of our itinerary. We were armed with an autograph letter from the Vali Pasha, or governor-general of Bosnia and Com mander-ia Chief of the Turkish forces, and owing to this were able to accomplish our tour without serious molesta tion, though it must he confessed that we underwent some risks. With a few short breaks we made our way through the country on foot, which is perhaps a novelty in Turkish travel. Our only impedimenta consisted of the knapsack and sleeping gear on our backs, so that we were entirely independent; and being able to use our legs and arms and sleep out in the forest, we were able to surmount moun tains and penetrate into districts which, I think I may say, have never been described, and it is possible never visited, by an European' before.
