Time Out : "Time Out" Guide to Edinburgh before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised "Time Out" Guide to Edinburgh:

With its underground caverns, ancient castle and imposing skyscape, Edinburgh has long been a city steeped in the past. Now, thanks in part to a cash and confidence injection from both devolution and slew of high profile media events, Scotland's capital has shimmied right into the modern age. This fourth edition of the Time Out Guide to Edinburgh has been completely revised and updated. Local writers take you down the cobbled alleys of the Old Town, through ultra chic bars of the New Town and right out to the tranquil beaches of Gullane. The guide looks past the Athens of the North to explore Glasgow's edgy charms, road tests the ever-popular distillery tours and offers a one-stop, no-nonsense guide to visiting the Highlands.

About the AuthorWritten and researched by local writers, residents and experts, resulting in unparalleled coverage of Edinburgh's eating, drinking and shopping scenes.
