Written by knowledgeable locals, this guide covers every aspect of Mallorca and Menorca, from the glorious beaches to eight specially commissioned walks through impressive natural areas. There's critical coverage of more than 700 accommodations, from rustic to ritzy, along with insider guides to the best of island cuisine and the robust wine industry. As always, the listings have been rechecked, re-researched, and rewritten as necessary, while updated maps help visitors make the most of their time.

"Time Out, famous for its city guides, takes a break from the urban world with this complete look at Mallorca and Menorca. This culturally savvy book seeks out the undiscovered treats of the island and shakes off the trashy image. This is the ideal companion to the off-the-beaten-track side of Spain.' - The Observer"
